Course description

Qualification Bachelor of Design

Field of study Humanities, social sciences, communication and arts

Course summary Design for all types of media and combinations of media.

Course description This is Crossmedia Design at ArtEZ: * Broad, interdisciplinary design programme that fits seamlessly into the contemporary practice of a designer. * Your own talent, individual development and choices are the key sources of inspiration. * With a focus on interaction, photography, print media, moving images or 3D. * Study in a small, manageable academic community. After completing this study programme, you can begin work as an art director or creative strategist in the design team of a large design studio, a publishing house or a broadcasting company. You can also choose to specialise as a photographer, interactive or graphic designer or work as a freelance crossmedia designer. For more information go to www.artez.nl

In short, the following rules apply:

Tuition fees

- The "EU/EEA rate" is the regular fee for students from within the EU/EEA.
- The "non-EU/EEA rate" is the rate for students from outside the EU/EEA.
- The "institutional rate" is for all students who have already obtained a bachelor's or master's degree and who want to start a second programme leading to a degree at the same level or at a lower level.
- Note that FT, PT and D stand for "full-time", "part-time" and "dual", respectively.

Make sure you contact your institution to find out what rate applies to you. The rates listed here are estimates.
