Course description

Qualification Bachelor

Field of study Humanities, social sciences, communication and arts

Course summary Music to you is a basic necessity. You play an instrument or sing at a high level, feel a constant urge to make music and have a tremendous drive to constantly improve.

Course description Talent is very important if you want to study at a school of music. However ArtEZ requires more than just talent. During the audition we look at your commitment and attitude. Music is so personal. It is important to make choices that suit you. This is why the study programme is located in three different cities: so that we can offer you a wide range of choices. Distinguishing yourself which is very important in the business starts with your decision about where to study. More information you can find on www.artez.nl
