Course description

Qualification Bachelor of Business Administration

Field of study Economics, commerce, management and accounting

Course summary The English taught BBA programme prepares for a position at (international) organisations which embrace sustainability and/or want to change the world, in a businesslike manner.

Do you want to change the world and are you looking for an international challenge? Are sustainability, human rights, global health, social responsibility, civil society and advocacy for minorities themes that you care about? Are you a critical thinker who want to contribute to a better world, in a businesslike manner? In our English taught programme we teach you, together with other international students, how to make real improvements by using project management. The programme is a Bachelor of Business Administration and is being facilitated by the Windesheim Honours College. Afterwards your career will start at for example international NGO's like Red Cross and Unicef, slave free clothing or chocolate industry or businesses that want to introduce sustainable production. Also many student start their own company or continue with a master programme. Windesheim is renowned for its very high quality study programmes and personal approach of students. We work with small groups. Here you aren't a number and our lecturers really want to help you to develop your talents. Student housing is well organized and we help you integrate in the Dutch student society.
