Course summary Leiden University College The Hague is a Liberal Arts & Sciences programme that focuses on the themes of Sustainability, Prosperity, and Diversity.

Course description Leiden University College The Hague (LUC) is the international Honours College of Leiden University, offering a Liberal Arts & Sciences programme to highly talented and motivated students from all over the world. It offers a Bachelor's programme with a Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. We want to enable students to thrive in a rapidly changing world and we aim to enable them to look at issues from creative and novel perspectives. LUC creates an intercultural experience that proudly culminates in our community of global citizens. This community is represented in both student body and staff. Linking your studies to the Global Challenges of the world politics, economics, governance, international justice, human & cultural interaction, global health and the environment, LUC is encapsulated by its motto: 'Building Knowledge for a Better World,' which is what our students and staff strive for.

Study subjects LUC The Hague allows students the flexibility of creating their own curriculum based on their interests. The programme focuses on international justice, world politics, diversity and integration, health and the environment, climate change, decision-making processes and human security.
