Course description

Qualification Master of Science

Field of study Engineering

Course summary Technology management in high-tech organisations.

Course description The MSc Management of Technology (MOT) is an international master program which highlights the numerous aspects of technology and innovation management. This MSc program educates students with a bachelor degree in engineering as responsible decision makers, professionals and future leaders in technology-based internationally-oriented competitive business environments. MOT engineers work as scientists, consultants or also as entrepreneurs in such environments. The programme deliberately aims at an international and diverse group of students. The programme focuses on the core themes of technology and innovation with a specific emphasis on commercialization, engineering economics, and research and reflection. MOT students have the opportunity to work hands on with technology as new technology emerges regularly from the different labs at Delft University of Technology.

Study subjects During their programme all graduates have demonstrated relevant knowledge and understanding of Managing Technology. For further details see www.tbm.tudelft.nl.
